CONFIDENTIAL A-C PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATION

If we are going to hold public comment open until the final round of documents goes to Encana in Dec (or if for whatever reason we are pushing into next year for the panel meeting), ERG will need to go back to the pool of potential panelists regarding availability.

Hi Leigh, Fred, and Ayn:

Looking at the calendar matrix for the pool of reviewers the following dates in December have the most available people:

Dec 12-13 (Not ERG's ideal panel selection)
 Dec 18-19 (I believe these include people that ERG would prefer to select for the panel)

That said, we would need to reconfirm dates with everyone as their schedules may have since filled up for these dates due to the delays. No guarantees that these dates are still good.

We did not collect calendar information past Dec 21 (eliminating Christmas week) and will need to request new calendars should the meeting be scheduled later.

Let me know if you need anything further, checking in occasionally from home today and I'll be back in the office tomorrow. Kate is back on Thursday.

Regards,
 Laurie

Laurie,

Can you confirm the date that ERG's top choice peer reviewers were available in December?

Please pass this information on to Fred and Ayn. I am out sick today with a sinus/ear infection.

Thanks,

Leigh
